What is the SWISSMAN Xtreme Triathlon?

The SWISSMAN Xtreme Triathlon leads the athletes and their supporters from the palm trees in the Italian part of Switzerland over three alpine passes to the eternal ice of the Jungfrau. The spectacular course, the unique scenery and the familiar atmosphere make the SWISSMAN an unforgettable adventure for everyone involved.

The course of the SWISSMAN with more than 5'700 altimeters is as breathtakingly beautiful as it is demanding. It takes the athletes on a journey through Switzerland and introduces them to our manifold culture and scenery.

The SWISSMAN Xtreme Triathlon is a long-distance triathlon with heart. The atmosphere between athletes, supporters, partners and volunteers is very familiar and everyone who has been part once will forever be a member of the SWISSMAN family.

At the SWISSMAN, time is of minor interest. It's about the adventure, the unforgettable Triathlon experience athletes share with their supporter and about managing the challenge SWISSMAN Xtreme Triathlon. The personal effort and the experience within the breathtaking surrounding are the only things that matter.

Qualification for the Xtri World Championship

The Xtri World Tour stands to bring to the world stage the most incredible races in unique and spectacular locations. With limited field sizes and strong community integration they will be the hardest and most memorable experiences of your life.

SWISSMAN is an official Xtri World Tour event. The male and female 1st and 2nd place athletes will qualify for the XTRI World Championships within Norseman Xtreme Triathlon in Norway in August 2026.

1. Summary

The SWISSMAN 2025 will launch on June 21, 2025 at 5 AM on the Brissago-Islands. All athletes and supporters need to register on Friday at the number distribution. For the fifth SWISSMAN Xtreme Triathlon 250 slots will be distributed by lottery.

The entry fee is EUR 520. Therein included is the transport back to Grindelwald on Saturday, June 21, as well as the transport up to the Kleine Scheidegg and back for the finisher ceremony on Sunday morning, June 22, 2025.

Each athlete needs his personal, registered supporter, who can communicate with the SWISSMAN Crew in German, French, Italian or English. Participation is prohibited without a registered supporter.

The supporter is personally responsible for his athlete during the entire day. There will be only one official and registered supporter. Only one supporter vehicle, which will be marked accordingly, is allowed per athlete! Both athletes and supporters must follow traffic rules with no exception!

For security reasons, the athlete must carry a mobile phone during the bike and running leg so he is accessible to his supporter. Headsets are not allowed on the bike; the athlete must stop and dismount to take or make a phone call.

It is the responsibility of the supporter to feed his athlete for the entire duration of the bike and running legs. Details and a map with convenient meeting points can be found in the SWISSMAN Roadbook. Supporters should not drive directly in front of, next to or behind the athlete, and the athlete may not accept anything from the moving car. At no time may he sit in the car.

Whoever wants to be a true SWISSMAN finisher does not draft! You will find no referee on the course. We assume a fair sportsman respects nature and other SWISSMAN participants. We take for granted that you will finish the course with the virtue of only your own strength.

The running path is not accessible by car. The supporter is allowed to park his car only in parking spots designated as meeting points in order to take care of his athlete. It is allowed to accompany the athlete by foot or bike.

Hiking sticks are not allowed during any part of the running leg.

To continue after Grindelwald, it is mandatory that the supporter accompanies the athlete by foot. The supporter must have a functioning phone with the registered supporter number on him. Supporters and athletes can only pass the checkpoint equipped with a backpack with food, warm clothing, and a flash- or headlight. There is a medical checkpoint in Grindelwald and Alpiglen. Athletes must follow any decision of the doctors.

On Sunday morning, the awards ceremony will be held at the Kleine Scheidegg. Each finisher and each supporter will receive the SWISSMAN-shirt. In memory of an unforgettable experience all finishers and supporters will be immortalized in a group photo.

2. General Informationen

Slots

The SWISSMAN 2025 will start with 250 athletes. Some of them will qualify directly with the X-Points. Half of the other starting places will be given away to national and half to international athletes. The allocation of slots for female athletes will be adjusted to the percentage of the registration. A slot for the SWISSMAN is personal and cannot be passed on. The identity of the athletes will be checked at registration on Friday. We ask the athletes to read the SWISSMAN Manual and the Athletes Declaration carefully before registering.

Entry Fee

The entry fee for the SWISSMAN 2025 is EUR 520. Athletes who are awarded a slot from the lottery will be asked to transfer the entry fee within 2 days of the announcement of the lottery results. The final registration will be effective with the transfer of the registration fee.

! Cancellation of registration

To be able to hold the SWISSMAN in the future, no entry fees will be refunded in case of cancellation by the participants. Cancellation insurance is the responsibility of the participants and can be added during the payment at RaceID.

Entry list

The participating athletes for the SWISSMAN Xtreme Triathlon 2025 will be published on the SWISSMAN website in January 2025. Like the SWISSMAN this year, next year's SWISSMAN will have a special participant list. We therefore kindly ask all athletes at registration to tell us in a few words why they absolutely want to participate in the SWISSMAN 2025.

Mandatory Supporter

Responsibility of the supporter

It is the principle of the organizer that no support will be available along the bike path and only very limited support provided by the organizer will be available on the running course. Therefore, every athlete needs his own supporter, who accompanies and feeds him on the bike and running course. Without a registered supporter, no athlete will be granted a number. The registered supporter will take on every responsibility for the supervision of the athlete during the SWISSMAN. He must be able to communicate with the SWISSMAN Crew in either German, French, Italian or English.

When athletes register for the lottery, they also must provide information about their supporter. This way, we can provide not only the athlete, but also the supporter with all important information we send out per email during the year. The supporter can be exchanged any time until the SWISSMAN.

Only one supporter vehicle allowed

Per athlete only one supporter vehicle is allowed. In this car, several people may accompany and support the athlete. It will be marked by the SWISSMAN organization. The use of caravans/campers is forbidden. Reason for the strict limitation to one car is, that we wish to not strain the environment more than necessary. Furthermore, the parking spaces as well as room on the alpine roads are very limited.

Mandatory accompaniment on foot from Grindelwald

The highlight of the SWISSMAN is the final climb from Grindelwald to Kleine Scheidegg. On this section (about 8 km and 1000 m of altitude, 2-3h average), it is mandatory for safety reasons that the supporters accompany the athletes on foot. After an unforgettable day, the supporter crosses the finish line together with his athlete. It is in the spirit of the SWISSMAN and strongly recommended that this is the registered supporter or at least one of the supporters, who has already accompanied the athlete all day. Only the fastest will still be able to run on this section. Experience has shown, that athletes will be so tired up until then, that it is no problem for the supporters to keep up with their athletes even if they are considerably weaker than their athlete under normal circumstances!

Supporter Shirt

As the supporters are an essential part of the SWISSMAN, they receive an official supporter SWISSMAN-shirt on Sunday. One supporter shirt will be issued per athlete. The desired sizes of the supporter-shirts will already be ordered at registration. As we have to order the especially made shirts very early, the size cannot be changed with an eventual change of supporter at a later time. Additional SWISSMAN-shirts can be bought during the SWISSMAN.

Medical Crew

The medical crew may at any time remove an athlete from continuation, in case of medical or health issues. Continuation of the SWISSMAN on personal responsibility is not possible.

Price money

No prize money will be awarded.

Timekeeping

At the SWISSMAN 2025 we will have no official timing with split times. The first man and the first woman to cross the finish line at Kleine Scheidegg are the winners of the SWISSMAN 2025. The arrival of each finisher will be published in the Finisher List.

Check-in and Briefing

The number distribution will take place on Thursday afternoon, June 20, and Friday, June 21, 2025. Friday arrival is mandatory to be able to start. Friday arrival is also compulsory for the supporters because the athletes need to register at the number distribution together with their supporters. The online briefing will be available in the week of SWISSMAN 2025 at the latest.

Accommodation Grindelwald / Kleine Scheidegg 21.06.2025

The participants organize the night after the SWISSMAN in Grindelwald or Kleine Scheidegg. It is not possible to stay on the Kleine Scheidegg with all the athletes, as the rooms are very limited there. The majority of the athletes and supporters will stay in Grindelwald. The operation of the Jungfrau Railway between Grindelwald and Kleine Scheidegg is therefore maintained until the official cut-off to allow all the return to Grindelwald Grund.

Spectators

Spectators are very welcome on the course and at the finish. We kindly ask the spectators to leave the parking slots along the bike course to the supporters. You can take the Jungfrau Railway (www.jungfrau.ch) from Grindelwald to Kleine Scheidegg or hike up. The train ride from Grindelwald takes 40 minutes.

Clima and weather

Swimming

The climate in southern Switzerland is very mild with warm temperatures in late June. The average water temperature of Lake Maggiore is about 18° C this time of the year.

Bike

The mountain passes are closed in winter until the end of May. Accordingly, low temperatures must be considered in the choice of clothing for the bike path. A pass descent without appropriate clothing is dangerous! In bad weather, snowfall cannot be excluded.

Run

The first part of the route runs along Lake Brienz and on to Grindelwald. On nice days in June temperatures up to 25° C are expected in the Bernese Oberland. The finish of the SWISSMAN is located at 2061 meters above sea in the heart of the Bernese Oberland, surrounded by the imposing mountain backdrop of the Eiger, Mönch and Jungfrau. For security reasons, your supporter joins you with appropriate equipment for the final climb. The weather in the mountains can change quickly, especially in the Jungfrau area. This is one of the main reasons why the Eiger North Face is one of the most difficult routes to climb.

3. Rules of Procedures for athletes and supporters

Rules

- For the SWISSMAN the rules of WTC apply. No referees are provided. We call upon your own responsibility.
- Littering by supporters or athletes leads to immediate exclusion from the SWISSMAN through the SWISSMAN crew. Athletes and supporters are obligated to help other participants in any case.

4. Order of events
